I gave back to the local community.

我参与了地区贡献活动。

Niigata Sangyo University has brought in international students from around the world, and is characterized by its strong focus on international exchange and community engagement. We promote interactions among people, and between people and nature, engaging every year in varied activities and undertakings that give back to the local community. These experiences allowed me to deepen my understanding of Japanese, other specialist knowledge, agriculture, and traditional culture. I was a little unsure of myself to start with, but now this university feels like my second home, and I'm filled with gratitude to all the people I've met here.

这所大学特色鲜明，积极接纳来自世界各地的留学生，并致力于推动多元文化交流和地区贡献活动。我们重视人与人、人与自然的交流，每年都会开展丰富多彩的活动和地区贡献项目。通过这些经历，我不仅提升了日语和专业能力，还深入了解了农业和传统文化等知识。虽然最初也曾感到不安，但现在我已将这所大学视为第二故乡，并对在这里遇到的人们充满了感恩。
